Dear Council Members:

On March 8, 1966 we notified you, pursuant to Section 4 of the Indiana Urban Mass Transportation Act of 1965, that there was imminent danger that Fort Wayne Transit would be unable to render adequate service within the City of Fort Wayne and applied to you for assistance under the provisions of that Act.

After a lapse of over five months, in which operational and financial circumstances of this Company continued to worsen, we notified you on August 23, 1966, pursuant to Section 9 of the same Act, that the management of this Company was of the opinion that public acquisition of the local transit system was necessary to enable the system to render adequate service within the city, and we requested you to determine whether the City was to acquire the transit system in Fort Wayne. This notice made mandatory a study by the City of such public acquisition. Also, such a study is a necessary prerequisite to any application to the Housing and Urban Development Department of the United States for any grant for mass transit aid.

Your Council had previously appointed a Citizens Committee on Transit. After much work and investigation by that Committee, it recommended to your Council that such study be undertaken immediately, and that a competent consulting firm be contracted with promptly to do the study. Almost a month after such report and six months after our request for such a study, no official action has been taken to provide for it.

This further lapse of time, almost a year from the date of our original notice, in which operational losses have mounted and equipment failures and maintenance have increased in greater proportion, all the more clearly demonstrates to the Directors of this Company that its continued permanent operation of the transit system cannot be pursued.

Accordingly, the Directors have instructed me to notify your Council that this Company is withdrawing and cancelling its request of March 8, 1966 for assistance. This will still leave before you our request of August 23, 1966 to determine whether the public is to acquire the system. As a result the proposed study can only cover the question as to whether the City should acquire the transit system.

Common Council of City of Fort Wayne

Your prompt and active study of the public acquisition of the transit system is needed and urged. This Company pledges full cooperation and understanding in seeking to assure continuance of local transit service in our city, but in the event requisite action is not initiated by this fall for another operator, either the city or private company, to take over, this Company will be forced to discontinue operations.
